

SISTERHOOD

- 1) Not everyone is interested in politics, but for those who are, FORM A COMMUNITY GROUP that studies issues locally or globally. They can share info with the larger RS group.
- 2) Host An Etiquette Dinner with the YW, include a "modest dress" fashion show.
- 3) Invite Sisters To Teach Or Demo their hobbies or talents.
- 4) TEACH A PIANO AND CONDUCTING CLASS. Allow students to use their new skills in Sunday Relief Society, Young Womens, or Primary.
- 5) Exercise together.
- 6) Offer to HOST A PRIMARY ACTIVITY.
- 7) Tape RS lessons so YW and Primary workers can hear them. Or hold an additional study class just for them. Always find a way to include your YW and Primary sisters. With this same idea: do all you can to help them with their calling, remember them with announcements and activities, include them as much as you can in what the RS is doing.
- 8) SIGN UP FOR A WELFARE ASSIGNMENT AS A GROUP OF FRIENDS. Invite those you're sitting next to (whether you know them well or not is the whole point) and you all go together.
- 9) Create a Relief Society Prayer Roll. Urge sisters to pray for one another. The reasons for these prayers may or may not be made known, but sisters will feel an instant closeness as they think and pray for one another during the day. You may even want to pick a day during the week and Fast together as sisters for your sisters.
- 10) Sit next to someone you don't know and keep asking them questions until you FIND SOMETHING YOU HAVE IN COMMON.
- 11) Try some Networking—share concerns with one another in the likelihood that someone out there has some answers, or knows someone who does.

12) Invite yourself to sit in Nursery to help with the little ones. Or sit with a family with young children and offer a helping hand.

13) Set up a bartering system; trade goods, skills, and labor. Share what you have and bless someone else's life. Or teach negotiation tactics to make the best possible purchases at the best possible price.

14) Why don't we hold a Retrenchment Meeting—First Sunday of the month, or other, where the Young Women join us for the entire meeting and we plan together what we will accomplish for the month—projects, lessons, activities, events, goals, service, etc. The following month, report and add new. Just like they did back in the old days.
