

SPIRITUAL PREPAREDNESS

- 1) Start a "Church Books Only" BOOK CLUB
- 2) Form a group working their way through Preach My Gospel or Institute Manuals
- 3) Invite the Gospel Doctrine Teacher (or any scholar) to TEACH A RELIGION CLASS – a continuation of the Sunday lesson, or other
- 4) Study RS lessons in depth after they've been taught
- 5) Discuss Conference talks – pull out, from the talks, what we've been asked to do. Challenge and report on what you've done to obey.
- 6) Discuss and practice the principles in "A Heart Like His". (See post)
- 7) Hold Testimony Meeting every Fast Sunday in Relief Society.
- 8) Share missionary experiences as young missionaries, part-time service missionaries, senior missionaries, etc.
- 9) Learn some new songs in the hymnbook, and their story, and sing this testimony as a group of sisters.
- 10) Have a "Johnny Lingo" party and be an eight cow wife. Or watch some of the great church, seminary, or scripture study videos available to us that we never have time to watch anymore.
- 11) Discover what the "SONG OF REDEEMING LOVE" OR THE "NEW SONG" is, in the scriptures. Hint: Everyone will be able to sing it at the Coming of the Lord.
- 12) In order to preach the gospel you need to know the gospel...and be able to verbalize it. Other churches teach their people how to confront people with their beliefs and they don't even have that much to say. We could come together and practice telling the First Vision to each other, or how the Priesthood works, or explain the covenants we make with our Father, and why we make them.
- 13) Get a group together to attend a BYU WOMEN'S CONFERENCE or Time Out For Women.
